

Chapter 20

What the Tree said to the lamppost always belong

haram

steal

1. Allah ﷻ _____ sees what we do.

2. Muslims do not _____ or lie because they want to please Allah ﷻ.

3. Stealing, lying, cheating are all _____
and make Allah ﷻ mad at us.

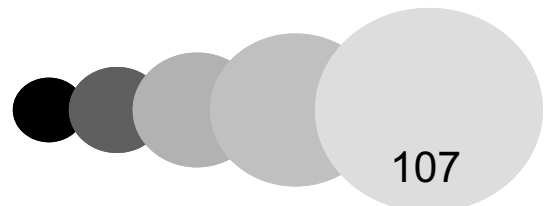

4. Never, ever take away something that does not _____ to you.

Put (√) by the correct sentence and (X) by the wrong sentence:

() Roni took Ali's toy because he likes it and always wanted one just like it.

() Omar liked Ali's toy, so he asked Ali if he could play with it.

() Rana let Laila borrow her doll. When Rana asked for it the next day, Laila said that she never had it.

() Sana borrowed Ali's game and gave it back the next day with a "Thank You" note.

() Eman made sure no one saw her when she took Dina's doll and hid it in a safe place.

() Sami felt ashamed for taking Ali's toy without his permission so he returned it and apologized to Ali.

() Kareem found a wallet on the playground so he gave it to the principle.

() Fatima found a watch on the playground; she doesn't know who it belongs to, so she kept it.

What the tree told the lamppost.

Remember!

- Allah ﷻ always sees what we do.
- Muslims do not steal or lie because they want to please Allah ﷻ.
- Stealing, lying, cheating are all haram and make Allah ﷻ mad at us.
- If you want to play with a toy that belongs to someone else, you must ask if it is okay to do so first. Never, ever take away something that does not belong to you.
