

Chapter 24

Think of 70 Excuses

mad	think	bad
talk	Muslim

1. If something goes wrong, _____
to people and find out what really happened.
2. Getting mad at people will make us think that they did _____ things.
3. A _____ should try

his best not to get mad.

4. When we get mad we cannot _____ right.

5. Getting _____ at people will make us think that they did bad things.

Put (✓) by the correct sentence and (X) by the wrong sentence:

() Aisha lost her hair band, Suha told her she saw it with Asma. This reason is enough for Aisha to accuse Asma of stealing her hair band.

() Omer was so angry with Adam, because Adam did not want to play with him today, and thought Adam doesn't like him any more.

() Hind doesn't want Lina to visit her today, Lina thought maybe Hind doesn't feel good today or maybe she have chores to do.

() Sami jumped up and down with anger when he found out that his Mom didn't buy his favorite ice cream and thought his Mom doesn't care about him much.

() The Prophet (S) told us to think of 70 excuses before accusing anyone of doing something wrong.

() " Don't get angry ": the prophet said to the man who kept on asking him for an advice.

() Muna made fun of Rami, but Rami controlled his anger and ignored Muna.

Think of 70 excuses.

Hadith

A man asked the Prophet ﷺ, "Give me an advice." The Prophet said: "Do not get angry." The man repeated his question many times, and every single time, the Prophet ﷺ would answer the same way, "Do not get angry."

سأل رجل الرسول صلى الله عليه و سلم:

أوصني. قال: " لا تغضب".

فردد مراراً، قال "لا تغضب".

Remember!

- A Muslim should try his best not to get mad.
- When we get mad we cannot think right.
- Someone who gets mad, may think that others did bad things to hurt them.
- If something goes wrong, talk to people and find out what really happened.
- Getting mad at people will make us think that they did bad things.
- By being kind to others and finding out what really happened, we can stop ourselves from getting mad.
