

Chapter 10

Too Much of a Good Thing

| | | |
|------------------|----------|------|
| permission | sick | late |
| assalamu alaikum | too long | |

1. Allah ﷻ ordered us to visit each other and visit those who are _____.
2. When entering a house we should always ask for _____ to enter.
3. Staying _____ or talking loudly will bother the people we visit.

4. Muslims should say “_____” when arriving to a new house and when leaving.

5. We should not visit friends too early or too _____ in the day.

Put (√) by the correct sentence and (X) by the wrong sentence:

() Omer wanted to visit his sick friend Ali to let Ali feels that he cares about him.

() Ahmed visited his sick friend and told him every thing he missed at school.

() Muna visited Sana after school. She stayed there until Isha prayer.

() Rana visited Lina when she was sick. The visit was short.

() Sami goes to Amir’s house any time he wishes. They live next door to each others.

() Every time Lina wanted to visit Rana she calls to make sure it is O.K with Rana and her parents.

() Sami's mom let Ahmed in and went to get Sami, Ahmed looked around to make sure Sami is home.

What should you do or say in the following cases:

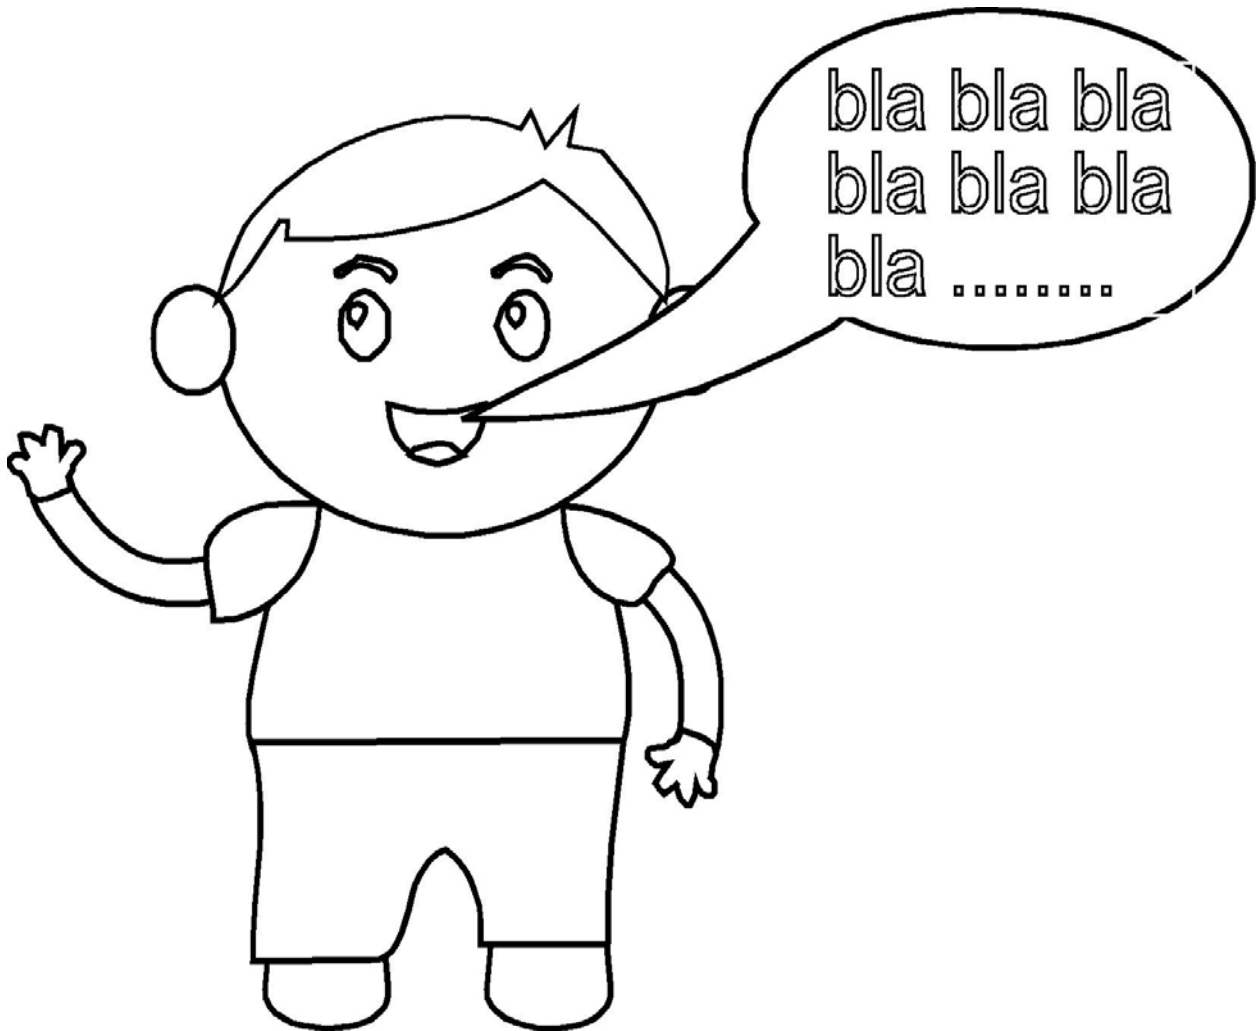

1. If you knock at your friend's door 3 times and no one answers.

2. If you went to visit a friend, then he told you to go back and visit later on.

3. If you knocked at your friend's door and heard a voice asking you: Who is it :

4. If your friend open the door for you to come in

Good manners is to make sure what we do or say is not hurting others.

Remember!

- Allah ﷻ ordered us to visit each other and visit those who are sick.
- When entering a house we should always ask for permission to enter.
- Staying too long or talking loudly will bother the people we visit.
- Muslims should say “assalamu alaikum” when arriving to a new house and when leaving.
- We should not visit friends too early or too late in the day.