

Chapter 20

Squirrels Stay Quiet

| | | |
|-------|--------|-------|
| wrong | guests | quiet |
| well | all | |

1. Muslims should be kind to _____ people.
2. If someone you know says or does something wrong, we should tell them nicely that what they are saying or doing is _____.

3. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us to say kind things to others or keep _____.

4. Muslims who believe in Allah ﷻ must be kind to their neighbor and generous to their _____.

5. Muslims treat their guests _____.

Answer the following questions:

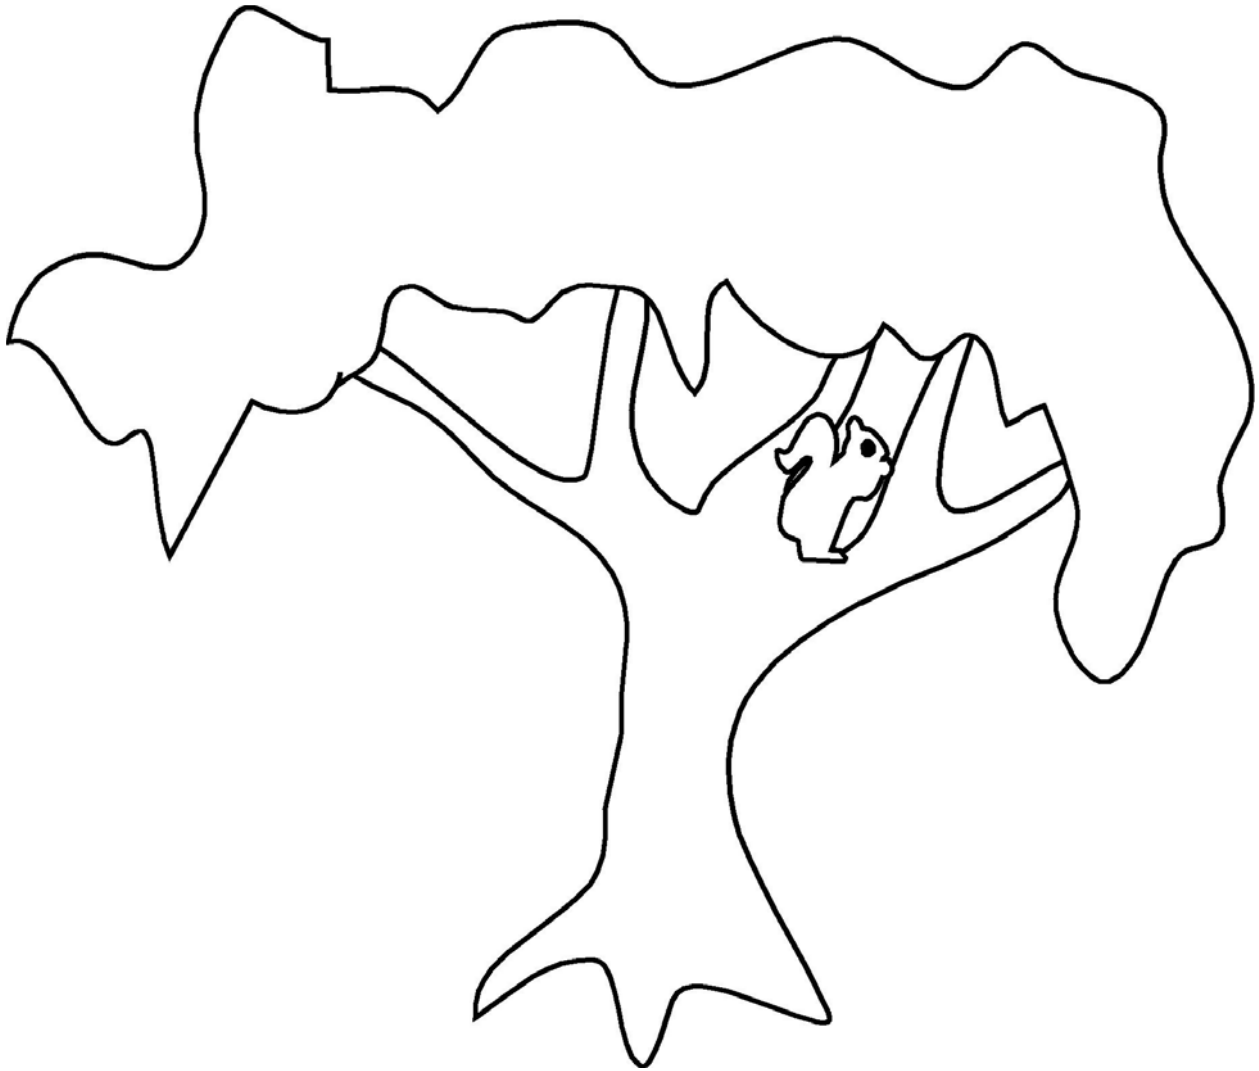

1. What are the two good things that all Muslims must have?

2. Write three kind manners you should have with your neighbor.

3. Write three kind manners you should have with your guest.

4. Think of three things that might happen when a person talks too much.

A Muslim is kind to all people and creatures.

Remember!

- Muslims should be kind to all people, talk to them in a nice way and never say something that would hurt others.
- If someone you know says or does something wrong, we should tell them nicely that what they are saying or doing is wrong.
- Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us to say kind things to others or keep quiet.
- Muslims who believe in Allah ﷻ must be kind to their neighbor and generous to their guests.
- Muslims treat their guests well, offer them food and drink and always say nice things to them.