

Chapter 22

Muhammad, a Young Man

robe

merchant

Mecca

shepherd

1. The Prophet ﷺ worked as a _____
when he was young.
2. As a young man, prophet Muhammad ﷺ helped his uncle when he traveled as a
_____.

3. Khadija was a rich lady from _____. The Prophet ﷺ worked for her and she liked him because of his honesty.

4. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ solved the problem of the black stone when the Kaaba was being rebuilt. He carried the stone and put it on his _____ and asked people from each tribe to carry it to the new place.

Answer the following questions:

1. Why did the ka'ba need to be rebuilt?

---

---

2. What was the problem after rebuilding the ka'ba?

---

---

3. Were the people happy that Mohammad ﷺ is the judge in the black stone problem? Why?

---

---

4. How did the people feel about Muhammad's judgment?

---

---

5. Who accompanied Muhammad ﷺ on his trip to As-sham when he went to on a business trip for Khadija?

---

---

6. How did the business trip go?

---

---

7. Why did Khadija want to marry Muhammad?

---

---

8. How old was Muhammad and Khadija when they married?

---

---

9. Who was the mother of all the children of the prophet Muhammad?

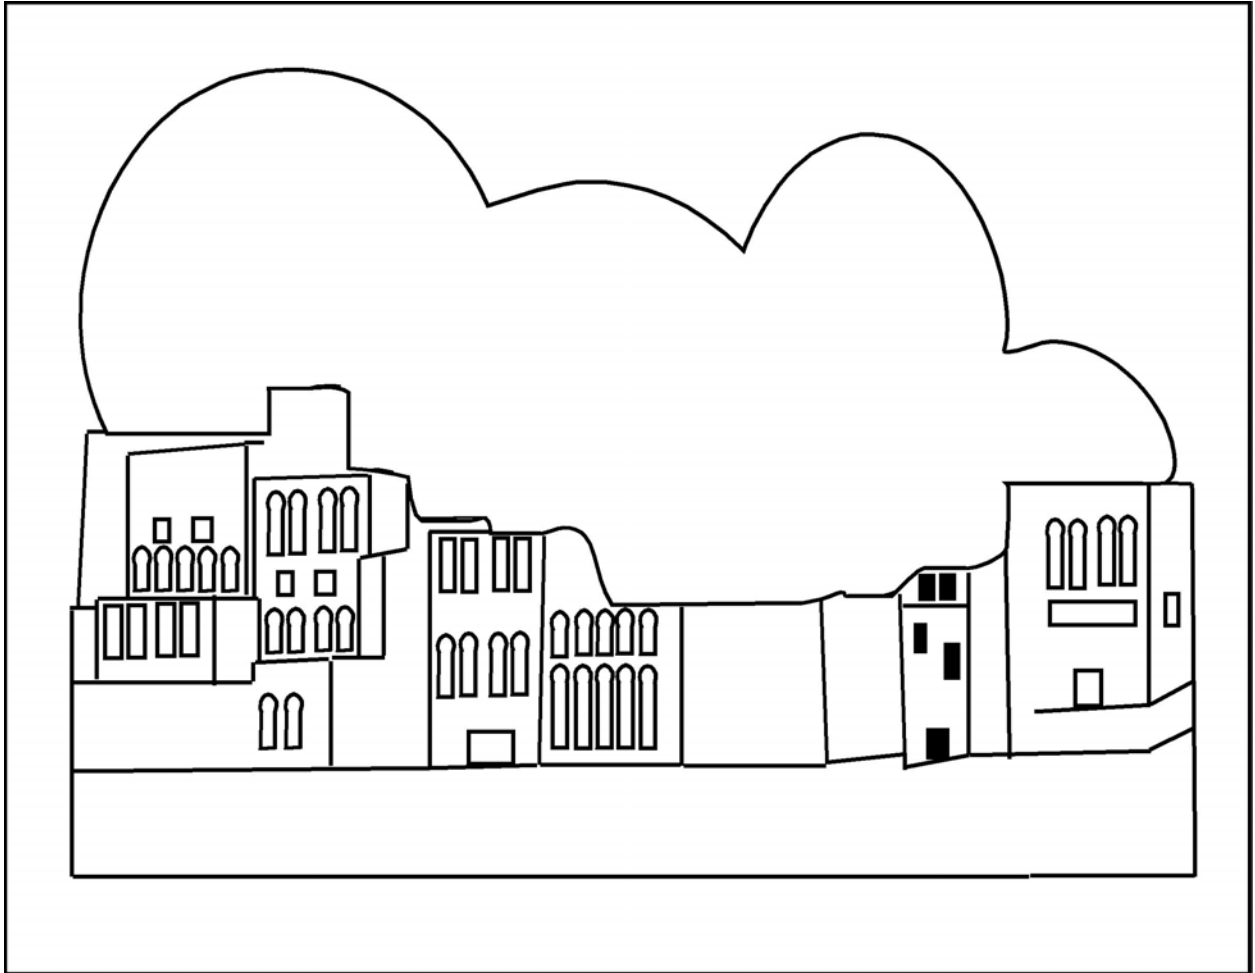

---

---

10. Who was the mother of Ibrahim, the son of Muhammad?

---

---

The Prophet ﷺ lived in Mecca, he married Khadija and was loved and respected by all the people of Mecca even before he became a prophet.

Remember!

- The Prophet ﷺ worked as a shepherd when he was young.
- As a young man, prophet Muhammad ﷺ helped his uncle when he traveled as a merchant.
- Khadija was a rich lady from Mecca. The Prophet ﷺ worked for her and she liked him because of his honesty.
- Khadija asked prophet Muhammad ﷺ to marry him.
- Prophet Muhammad ﷺ solved the problem of the black stone when the Kaaba was being rebuilt. He carried the stone and put it on his robe and asked people from each tribe to carry it to the new place.