

Chapter 25

Relatives

help

Abu Taha

giving needy

relatives

1. The Prophet ﷺ told _____ to give his land to Abu Talha's poor relatives.
2. The best kind of _____ is when we give from what we like most.
3. Our _____ are our parents, sisters and brothers, uncles and aunts and cousins.

4. Our relatives deserve our _____ before giving to people who are not related to us.

5. Allah ﷻ helps and rewards those who give the _____ .

Fill in the blanks:

People of Medina who supported the prophet were called _____

He is one of the good Muslims of the Ansar, _____

Abu Talha's most valuable property was his _____

When Abu Talhs heard that the Quran tells the Muslims that the best kind of giving is when a person gives from his

_____ , so he gave his

_____ for the sake of Allah.

The Prophet (S) was very _____ with Abu Talha and he advised him to give it to his _____ ,

because they were poor.

Allah ﷻ loves those who give others what is dear to them.

Remember!

- The Prophet ﷺ told Abu Taha to give his land to Abu Talha's poor relatives.
- The best kind of giving is when we give from what we like most.
- Our relatives are our parents, sisters and brothers, uncles and aunts and cousins.
- Our relatives deserve our help before giving to people who are not related to us.
- Allah ﷻ helps and rewards those who give the needy.