

Chapter 20

family comes first home

worship

parents

1. Charity starts at _____. Muslims should make sure that they treat all people well, but specially at home.
2. Allah ﷻ orders Muslims to _____ him alone and to good to parents.
3. Being good to _____ is to make them happy by obeying their wishes and never making them upset.

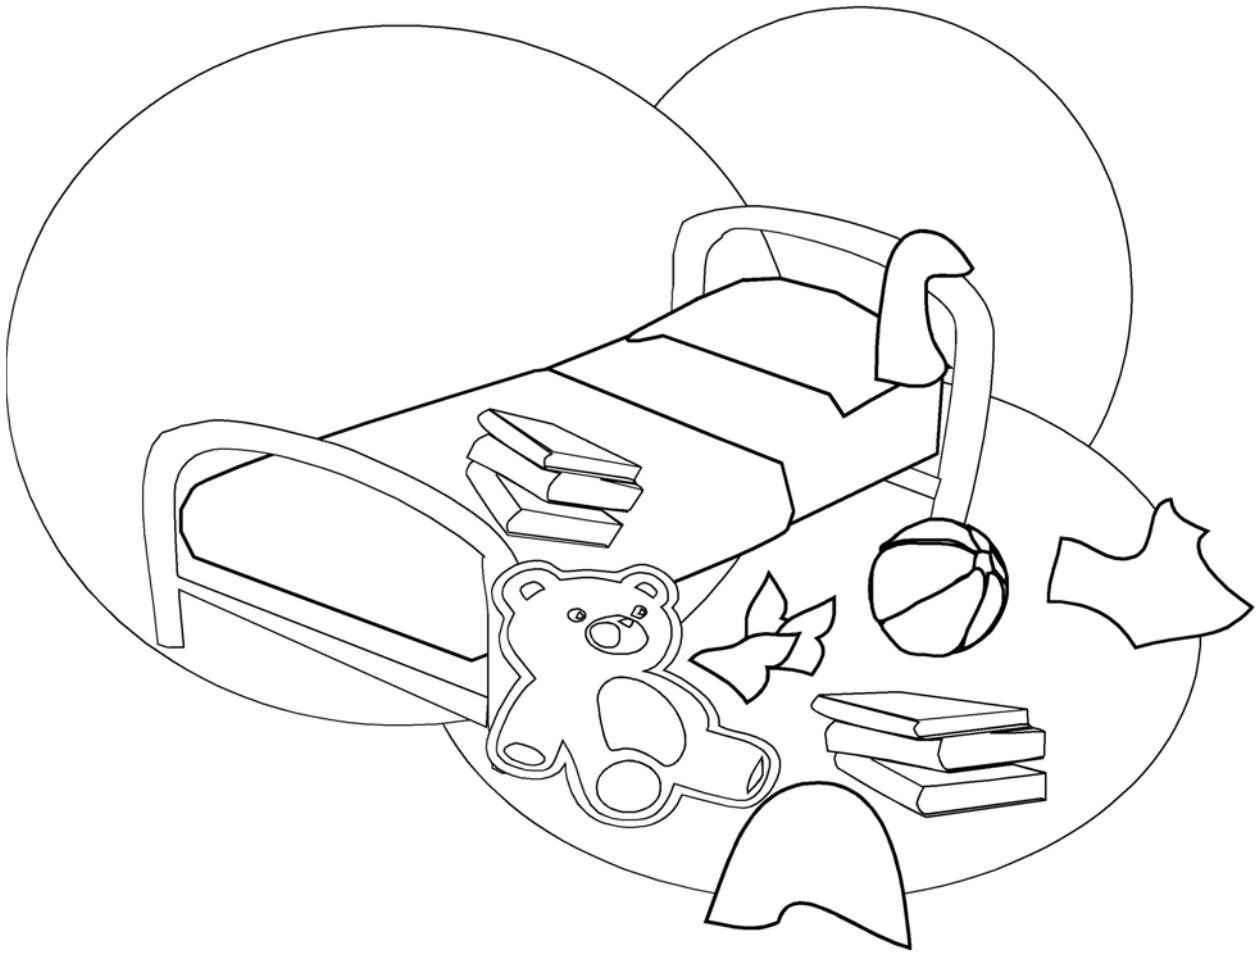

-
4. Parents love their children and want what is good for them, so obeying them will make us better people.
 5. Parents are happy when they see their children obeying Allah ﷻ and obeying what they ask them to do.

List some of the things your parents do for you?

List some of your duties toward your parents.

Find and write below a Hadith that stress kindness to parents?

Remember!

- Charity starts at home. Muslims should make sure that they treat all people well, but specially at home.
- Allah ﷻ orders Muslims to worship him alone and to good to parents.
- Being good to parents is to make them happy by obeying their wishes and never making them upset.
- Parents love their children and want what is good for them, so obeying them will make us better people.
- Parents are happy when the see their children obeying Allah ﷻ and obeying what they ask them to do.